Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Westminster Play: Its Actors and Its Visitors It is not with any idea that I can do justice to my subject, but merely with a desire to add my mite of loving applause to Westminster s glory, that I have been induced, while sitting alone in my room on this night, when all that I have endeavoured to picture in the following pages is going on in reality, to beguile my solitude by looking over and bringing into shape a few ideas which I have, either while at school or since I left, scribbled down in commemoration of the Play - the great era in a Westminster s life. As it is only for my schoolfellows, past and present, that this trifle is intended, I make no apology for the use of terms which will not be understood except by them; but I must, at the same time, pray their forbearance in regard to any errors which may be found in it, hoping they will pardon its numerous defects, in consideration that my difficult but pleasing task has been undertaken through a feeling of love and respect for our Royal School.
