Not illustrated. 1890 Excerpt: .fashion of the flowerboxes, each side being made to receive a tile. Eight-inch tiles are better for these boxes, six-inch ones being rather small. Wood could be employed in this case for the framework, and girls who have brothers with a turn for carpentering might get them to make them. It is surprising what people can do when they set earnestly to work, and by brothers and sisters joining in a kind of working partnership they would materially help each other to be useful. Many boys are quite expert carpenters, and yet too often spend their time in making useless boxes and rabbit-hutches, when, with a little stimulus and directing advice, they might manufacture some useful and ornamental articles. Tea-pot stands are things which are not difficult to make, and with a nicely painted tile in them, form admirable presents. Some black picture moulding does admirably for framing the tile, and with four small nobs at the bottom corners, completes a most useful article for the tea-table. Wash-stand bricks are often fitted with tiles, and, in fact, we might stay to enumerate their various uses, to the exclusion of more important matters; but we will pass on to other considerations. Having seen some of the uses tiles can be put to, we will just consider what are their advantages from a technical point of view. To begin with, a tile is the best possible article to attempt when beginning pottery-painting, for this reason, that the surface...
